Diversity Initiative of the Year Award

Latin Lawyer's Diversity Initiative of the Year Award recognises law firms' innovative efforts to promote diversity and equal opportunity, both in their firms and in the wider legal market. We give precedence to initiatives that use innovative and forward-thinking measures to bring about a big impact in the promotion of diversity, setting precedents for others to follow. The initiative must be able to demonstrate a significant, positive impact on the promotion of equal opportunities within the legal industry.

If your nomination is shortlisted, you may be asked to provide the names and emails of at least three referees (two outside the nominee's place of work and one at their place of work).

ESG Initiative of the Year Award

Latin Lawyer's ESG Initiative of the Year Award recognises law firms' innovative efforts to promote environmental, social and governance goals both in their firms and in the wider legal market. We give precedence to initiatives that take a holistic, innovative and forward-thinking approach to bring about positive change. By demonstrating clearly defined objectives, monitoring and accountability, the initiative must be able to showcase a strong commitment to improving sustainability and social responsibility.

If your nomination is shortlisted, you may be asked to provide the names and emails of at least three referees (two outside the nominee's place of work and one at their place of work).

International Lawyer of the Year Award

Latin Lawyer's International Lawyer of the Year Award recognises a law firm partner from an international firm with a strong presence in Latin America who has built a leading profile through their work in the region. This award is intended to recognise partners working for international law firms (as opposed to Latin American ones) with a strong profile in the region, demonstrated by their visibility on important and high-profile deals and cases, as well as their work with top-tier local firms in Latin America.

If your nomination is shortlisted, you may be asked to provide the names and emails of at least three referees (two outside the nominee's place of work and one at their place of work).

Law Firm Leader of the Year Award

Latin Lawyer's Law Firm Leader of the Year Award recognises a law firm leader displaying exceptional leadership skills and strategic vision. The award is intended to recognise a law firm managing partner who has successfully implemented systems of management that strengthen the institutional framework of their firms and safeguard their future, positioning their firms at the top of their market. The chosen winner must be a law firm leader – i.e. a managing partner or part of a firm’s executive management committee. We do not consider nominations for practice group leaders or partners who are not part of a firm’s senior management.

If your nomination is shortlisted, you may be asked to provide the names and emails of at least three referees (two outside the nominee’s place of work and one at their place of work).

Lifetime Achievement Award

Latin Lawyer's Lifetime Achievement Award recognises lawyers who over the course of their careers have made an outstanding contribution to the practice of law in Latin America. This award is intended to recognise senior lawyers who have been practising law for many years. They have either been a law firm partner for a considerable amount of time, or have recently retired from the partnership to take on a senior counsel role or similar. It takes into account individuals' achievements and wider contributions to the practice of law in their country over their lifetime.

If your nomination is shortlisted, you may be asked to provide the names and emails of at least three referees (two outside the nominee's place of work and one at their place of work).

Pro Bono Law Firm of the Year Award

Latin Lawyer's Pro Bono Law Firm of the Year Award is in recognition of a law firm's outstanding commitment to building an institutional pro bono practice. This award is intended to recognise law firms that have implemented internal structures to ensure pro bono work is carried out, for example by having a pro bono coordinator or by making it mandatory for each lawyer to do a certain number of pro bono hours per year. We recognise firms that have been able to make a significant contribution to helping the poor and disadvantaged as a result of having these structures in place.

If your nomination is shortlisted, you may be asked to provide the names and emails of at least three referees (two outside the nominee's place of work and one at their place of work).

Pro Bono Project of the Year Award

Latin Lawyer's Pro Bono Project of the Year Award is in recognition of a pro bono case or initiative that brings access to justice to those who don't have the means to pay for it. For example, by providing free legal services to the poor or to the organisations that assist them, or working on matters of public interest on a pro bono basis. We give precedence to those cases or initiatives that have a big impact, bettering the lives of many people or establishing new precedents for others to follow.

If your nomination is shortlisted, you may be asked to provide the names and emails of at least three referees (two outside the nominee's place of work and one at their place of work).

Specialist Law Firm Leader of the Year Award

Latin Lawyer's Specialist Law Firm Leader Award recognises the leader of a boutique firm that demonstrates excellence in its field. The award is intended to recognise the managing partner of a firm focused on one area of expertise, which has achieved top tier status in their market. The chosen winner must be a law firm leader – i.e. a managing partner or part of a firm's executive management committee. We do not consider nominations for practice group leaders or partners who are not part of a firm's senior management.

If your nomination is shortlisted, you may be asked to provide the names and emails of at least three referees (two outside the nominee's place of work and one at their place of work).
