LACCA - Who Represents Latin America's Top 100 Companies 2026?

The Latin American Corporate Counsel Association (LACCA) is conducting its annual research into which law firms are regularly retained by the region's largest 100 companies.

This survey contains the latest list of Latin America's Top 100 companies by revenue. Please enter a contact email address for each company your firm regularly represents. For us, regularly means you should actively be doing billable work for the company at least once a year. Any company for which an email contact is not provided, will not be included alongside your firm in the research.

The deadline for responses is Wednesday 02 December 2026.

The research, which will include detailed regional and country by country analysis, will be published in 2027.

1. Law firm name

2. Name of main contact at the law firm

3. Country
